The Guild Meeting

Tuesday, November 3rd, 2009 12:30pm

San Dieguito United Methodist Church

Assembly Room ~ 170 Calle Magdalena, Encinitas

Meeting on Tuesday & One Wednesday Workshop

The Guild's Tuesday, November 3rd Meeting-

Fayla Reiss will be with us giving a lecture and trunk show on her Needle Felting technique, and sharing her unique garments with us. (Joan and her friends had previewed a few of the items they have made at our October meeting. There were many ohhh's and ahhh's over the jackets and scarves shown.) Fayla Reiss is a cutting edge knitting designer with an enthusiasm for color, texture and distinctively simple modern designs. She is from Australia, and now lives with her family in Los Angeles. She lectures at the Fashion Institute of Merchandise and Design, has made the covers of Vogue Knitting, Knit & Style, and been published in Knitters, Interweave Magazines, and Vogues little books On the Go. Fayla's has also been featured in such TV programs as Knitty Gritty and the DIY network television.

The Wednesday November 4th Workshop (2 hours)-

Then on Wednesday, November 4th Fayla will be conducting a Workshop from 10:00AM -12:00 noon at the Church. She will be sharing her techniques, and participants will work on a needle felted silk scarf project. She will be bringing some kits and many samples to inspire you. Please reserve your space in the workshop NOW so she can bring the correct amount of kits. There are three parts to the cost consideration for this class, but well worth it.

-Workshop Cost: $25 - Please send your check to our Treasurer, Jean Moore, 4050-50 Porte La Paz, San Diego, CA 92122, for $25 payable to North Coast Knitters. Or bring it to the meeting if you cannot mail it in time.

-See page 3 for additional Supplies, Materials and Tools that will need to be purchased. Some Guild Member's have offered to let others BORROW their needle felting tools. Please contact Deirdre Michalski at dsmichalski@cox.net if you would like to let others borrow your tools, or if you need to borrow tools for the Workshop. Deirdre will collect the tools after the Workshop and get them back to their rightful owner.

Planning Ahead for 2010...

January Meeting, 2010- Tanya Alpert, Owner of "Knitting by the Beach" knitting store will be presenting "Haku Knits".

The Meeting Program Line Up for 2010- Colleen Davis has been doing an amazing job on preparing a wonderful selection of programs for us in 2010. As you can imagine this takes months of effort. Look for the complete calendar in the January Newsletter and also on our web site!

A New Challenge- In January, there will be a new Challenge- "Everything Tea Party." More details to follow...but think about knitting anything related to a "tea party". Items will be brought to the June meeting and presented at the July meeting.

Fashion Show in April, 2010- Attention Fashion-istas! This Spring we will have a fashion show showcasing knitted skirts. There are lots of new patterns for all kinds of skirts. Maybe you could incorporate fabric with knitting or embellish a store-bought skirt. So, start looking for a pattern and the right yarn so the fashion show will be memorable. Make Colleen proud....

◆ PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE-BARBARA LEVIN

Hard as it is to believe, the Holiday Party is almost upon us. As we have for the past several years, we will be collecting "dressed" Teddy bears. These little guys and gals serve two purposes. They first make an appearance as a centerpiece at the holiday luncheon. Then they move on to their more important destiny as gifts to children at the Polinsky Center in San Diego. The Polinsky Center is a temporary emergency shelter for children who must be separated from their families for their own safety or when parents cannot provide care. Each month more than 300 children pass through its doors, some with just the clothes on their backs.

With that 40% off coupon from Michael's that appears in the Sunday newspaper each week, a teddy bear will cost you just a few dollars. Add in yarn from your stash and a couple hours to knit a bear sweater, and you will have a gift that will deliver maximum bang for very few bucks.

Please bring your bears – or any other animals – to the November meeting. We can't wait to see them. If you are donating items to the raffle, please bring them to the November meeting also.

◆ OCTOBER MEETING MINUTES Barbara Levin presiding 88 members and guests present

President Barbara Levin opened the meeting by urging members to sign up for the holiday lunch and fashion show on December 7th. Bears and toys are needed for table decorations as well as donations for the "opportunity" drawings. Jo Ellen Gould spoke about the upcoming knitting retreat in Temecula scheduled for January 18-21, 2010. Lois Watson is organizing a knitting cruise for next September leaving from Vancouver with a stop in Victoria before returning to San Diego. Liz Knapp has accepted the role of interim philanthropy chairperson and asked for suggestions to donate to specific charities. She asked for pink and red scarves and helmet liners. Barbara asked for a volunteer to coordinate our participation in next year's San Diego Fair. Plans are being formed for "After Party" sessions to be held following selected monthly meetings. The name of our guild has been officially changed to the San Diego North Coast Knitters to distinguish it from other guilds throughout the country with similar titles. Linda Erlich has designed a new logo that will appear on all our documentation including our website and Ravelry. Colleen Davis encouraged members to sign up for the workshop in November on needle felting given by Trendsetter designer, Fayla Reiss. Joan Kaswan modeled several garments based on this technique.

Barbara introduced our guest speaker from Los Angeles, freeform fiber designer Myra Wood, who spoke about creative lace knitting and freeform knitting and crochet. She is the author of a new book entitled "Crazy Lace". Barbara and Linda as well as Susan Ludwig assisted Myra in modeling and displaying a fabulous assortment of garments. Two workshops were planned for the following day.

More Details for the Wednesday November 4th Needle Felting Workshop With Fayla Reiss...

-Supplies & Materials- At the workshop, you can give Fayla cash or a check for $37 made out to Fayla Reiss Designs for the materials. She will be supplying (silk, rovings and Tinkerbell) to make a silk scarf. (Note: This fee does not include the felting tool and brush you will need.)

-Needle Felting Tools- Just like you would bring knitting needles to a workshop, there are two tools that are used for this technique. Many of you already have them, but for those that do not, they can be purchased at our local yarn stores or we have found them at a discounted price on-line. See details below. Some have offered to let Guild Members borrow their tools, so see Page 1 for details on that. (Fayla will also have a limited supply of the tool and brush which will be $34.)

Purchasing The Needle Felting Tools:

You will need two products. The most common manufacturer is Clover. 1) Needle Felting Mat (we suggest the large size 6 ¼" x 4 ½") $17.49-$12.99. 2) Needle Felting Tool (sharp needles so be careful) $16.49-$12.49.

Local Knit Shops-

Please contact your local knitting store to make sure they have the Needle Felting materials you may need. Not all shops carry these products. A complete list of knitting shops is located on our web site at: www.ncknits.com .

Purchase On the Internet-

The two tools are made by Clover and they seem to be offered at a discount. Order right away if you want them in time for the Workshop on Wednesday, November 4th. Click on the link below and scroll down the page to find the Needle Felting Mat and the Tool. We suggest purchasing the large mat since that works for making scarves as well as small embellishments. <http://store.knitting-warehouse.com/notions-felting-clover.html>

◆ VOLUNTEERISM-We Need A Few Good Women!

Our Guild is looking for a few good women, and if you have been enjoying the Guild, and have not stepped up to the plate to help out, now is your chance. We need two volunteers for Guild jobs that won't take up a lot of your time or energy. Or, you can do it as a tag-team and do it with one of your Guild friends. We need a Del Mar Fair coordinator who acts as a liaison between the Fair staff and the Guild. We also need a Membership Officer, who is in charge of making nametags, bringing them to the meeting and greeting members and guests. To volunteer, send a note or call Barbara Levin. Or, to find out more details about these jobs, please contact Eileen Adler (Fair Coordinator) or Sara Stolz (Membership).

◆ SHARING AT OCTOBER MEETING

We print abbreviated summaries of shared items which provide enough information to allow you to follow up on items you might like to knit. If you share an item during the monthly sharing, it cannot be worn in the Holiday Luncheon fashion show. Shared items MUST BE FINISHED --- unless it's near Christmas when the rules are relaxed so that you can share an item before it's shipped off to its recipient.

Amy Sheridan: Cardigan- Minimalist Cardigan from Interweave Knits Fall '07. Rust colorway, using Karabella Superwash Merino yarn.

Stacy Smith: Shawl- Amaretto Gold by Jane Sowerby. Yarn was Malabrigo Lace and she used the Melon Stitch.

Masumi Aycock: Three Cardigans- Masumi presented three different cardigans. For one the yarn was recycled from Irene Fisher sweater, and the other two were machine knit. One was a natural color, and the other two were coral. One had used a linen yarn, one was cashmere, and the third was Merino Wool.

Rosie Berkowitz: V-Neck Cardigan- Eileen Adler's pattern in a creamy yellow. The yarn was Brown Sheep in a 80/20 cotton, merino "cotton fleece".

Lois Friedlander- Cardigan- From Knitter's Magazine, Summer of 2005. Colorway was light blue, in 100% wool sports weight. Buttons were purchased at Michael's and were probably for children's garments but she liked them so much.

Liz Knapp- Shawl- This pattern was a free download called Mara. The colorway was plum and the yarn was Filati Deluxe "Francia". This is new yard that has never been distributed in the US before. She purchased it in a shop in Chula Vista. (Visit our web site for a listing of all yarn shops in the area.) Socks- Pattern was also a free download, called Jaywalker, done in blue and green using Regia Jacquard. A great vacation knitting project!

Cia Bullemer- Cardigan Vest- Pattern is Kim Hargreaves Nectar book. Colorway was Red, using Frog Tree Pima Cotton. Pattern was a short sleeve, but she got bored and did sleeveless.

Evelyn Bareno- Shawl- Pattern was from Luna Moth, colorway was blue, green and black. Yarn was Schaefer Anne and the pattern was free!

Tricia Thompson- Sweater and Baby Blue Jeans- These were her own pattern for a 3 year old. The white and silver sweater is a Princess Cardigan for Halloween and was a mix of balls from stash. Baby jeans are a successful experiment with cone yarn.

Barbara McCroskey- Short Sleeved Sweater- Pattern was Berroco "Valpuri" using Rowan "Summer Tweed". This was 70/30 silk and cotton. Not slippery but difficult to frog as no elasticity.

Siobhan Rosenberg- Scarf- The pattern was from Martha Stewart. It is a take-off from an ascot design which just sits around the neck and one side has a small slit so that one end slips thru the other. Colorway was blue with little specks of tan. Yarn was Gedifra Riana Wool. She made this for her trip to Ireland. Wanted to make something that would keep her warm without being a bulky scarf.

◆ Philanthropy

Inspired Knitting....I would like to thank Marsha Wensky for her tireless service as Philanthropy Chair. We are grateful for her energy and organizational skills, and for linking our Guild to various charitable organizations over the years. November is the last month to bring in your chemo hats for the Hat Box Project. Our red HeartScarves were shipped in October and Guild member Cia Bullemer sent our woolen helmet liners to her son's troop in Afghanistan.

As we look ahead, we're going to be searching for organizations to receive our Guild's knitted and crocheted items. According to our Mission Statement, "Philanthropic projects are encouraged, but the foremost objective is to stimulate, motivate and inspire people to knit." Who or what inspires you to knit? Did a loved one receive compassionate care from a local hospice? Does your church do mission work for disadvantaged children? Do you have a neighbor who lost her home in the wildfires? What local charitable organization touched your life in 2009? Who needs our Guild's help in 2010? Please send me your ideas by e-mail to liz.yarn@yahoo.com, or call me at 619-995-9276. I will bring your suggestions to the Board and we will select several new philanthropies for next year. Thanks for your help in developing that list!

Liz Knapp

✦ OUR SERIES ON RAVELRY.COM- #2

Ravelry and Errata

Contributed by: Crazy Crocheter-Monday July 7,2008 from her blog.... I discovered Ravelry. After giving it just a quick glance I understand why most of the knitting (and as it turns out not only knitting) people are using it. I will try to dedicate a separate blog post to Ravelry, for now I just want to share a piece of important information I found. Remember my Reverse Psockology socks? It turns out there is an errata for the pattern. As Anne Pattigrew, the creator of this pattern, mentions on her blog:

it is difficult to get the holes formed by the yarn-overs the same size because of the transition between knit and purl stitches

I remember noticing it when working on my pair but I did not know if it was "normal" or if it happened because of my uneven knitting style, after all it was my first pair of socks. For those of you who are working on these, here you can find a different version of the lacy pattern.

How Do YOU Use Ravelry?

Guild Member Linda Erlich shares her insights....

I haven't figured out how use a digital camera and upload everything to my computer, so I have no projects listed on my Ravelry Profile. I don't input anything into Ravelry, but I sure take a lot out. I guess you could say I mooch from others' experiences.

Before I start any knitting project from a pattern, I check to see who else has already made it. If folks say this pattern was "impossible", or "I frogged it four times", I abandon it and look for something else to knit. Why go through that kind of aggravation? Knitting is supposed to be fun and relaxing!

It is also a great way to use stash yarn. You know that yarn you bought ten years ago because it was oh, so yummy? Well, just type it in and most likely hundreds of projects will appear made out of that yarn. Instantly, you have all kinds of suggestions for how to use your yarn that has been sitting in your closet for years! So give it a try and become a moocher like me!!!

Guild Member Heather Broadhurst shares her insights too...

When I first heard about Ravelry, I figured it was just the latest "it" thing that would catch people's attention for awhile before they moved onto to the next fad.

Although I knew a lot of people who were spending a lot of time seemingly entering every knitting needle, every ball of yarn and the progress of every knitting project they had going, I really didn't see the point and had more than enough online things going on/taking my time so I was a bit of a hold out until a trip to Ohio and an encounter with designer Shannon Okey (aka knitgrrl) convinced me that I needed to rethink my opinion.

Since that time, my relationship with Ravelry has continued to evolve and I've become a Ravelry Evangelist.... spreading the news and paying forward the excellent advice Shannon gave me. While I still haven't inventoried all my knitting needles and printed out a little card to show what I own, I've recently been making some inroads into doing an inventory of my Stash.

There's a mix of mooch and contributing in that effort. The mooch part comes from the fact that if some other member of the Ravelry community has entered the information for the yarn I don't have to enter gauge, fiber content, yardage, etc. I simply type in the name of the yarn, the manufacturer and take advantage of someone else's entry.

When the information isn't in there, I can consult my copies of Valuable Knitting Information to enter the details on, for example, that Melrose Silk Supremo and build the knowledge base for others.

As I said, my Ravelry experience is evolving and that evolution continues and I promise to write more in newsletters to come. I also invite you to share your Ravelry experience -- what small part of the big picture are you using, what part do you want to explore and what part do you just not get/understand?
