May 1, Zinzi Edmundson, "The Making of Knit Wit - A Niche Craft Magazine"

For four years and eight issues, Knit Wit has been a different voice in the fiber community, taking a lifestyle magazine and storytelling approach to craft media. For our May meeting, we'll host Zinzi Edmundson, the Los Angeles-based founder and editor behind the title. Both a lifelong knitter and print media consumer, Zinzi wanted to create the print publication that she felt was missing—and so, in 2014 launched Knit Wit.

Zinzi got her start at the publishing powerhouse Condé Nast, first with a stint at the New Yorker and then Architectural Digest, and finally a masthead position at Bon Appétit. She left that job in her mid-twenties to tour the world with her band and when she returned she settled in as Featured Editor at the former women's fashion and surf title, FOAM.

In her talk, Zinzi will tell us the story of founding Knit Wit—and the many trials and triumphs that have come along the way. Find more information about the May 1 meeting at the Guild's website, and learn more about the Knit Wit magazine at <https://knitwitmag.net/>.

Note new meeting time:
Doors open 12:45 p.m.
Meeting starts 1:15 p.m.

Members Teaching Members

*Karen Bochinski, MTM Chair
MTMWorkshops@SanDiegoKnitters.com*

What is MTM?

Guild members share their specific areas of expertise with other members in these intimate workshops. Enthusiastic teachers bring you new techniques, special projects and knitting know-how.

MTM workshops are open to all members as instructors, hosts and students. Non-refundable workshop fees are paid at the guild's MTM Table and go directly to the instructor. You pick the class length, date, and location. MTM workshops take place all over San Diego county in members' homes, not necessarily at the instructor's home. Hosts attend for free! Consider hosting or teaching and get even more out of your Guild membership.

President's Message

Mary Brown & Laura Brubaker, Co-Presidents
President@SanDiegoKnitters.com

I take pride in being a member of this fantastic Guild. It's a place where we can get together to discuss our knitting, and to learn new techniques via our speakers and the accompanying workshops. We enjoy having knitters of all levels in our Guild. At the last meeting I encouraged people to sign up for Show and Share. This is a big part of our meeting and we would like to have everyone, at some point, show what they are working on. That means all of you, regardless of your current level of expertise. We all know that we are so lucky to have many expert knitters and published designers in our group. However, the Guild is for everyone and everyone's participation is very welcome. Don't be shy.

If you were at the April meeting, you heard me announce that we will experiment with compressing the meeting so that we can be complete by about 3:00. To accomplish that, the doors will open to members at 12:45 instead of 1:00. Committee heads may still be setting up their stations, so please be patient. The meeting will begin at 1:15 instead of 1:30. And, I believe this will be a very popular change, we are discontinuing the mid-meeting break.

This is the time of year when we begin thinking about the future of the Guild leadership. It's not too early to consider participating as a committee chair or officer. I have found it wonderful to learn more about the Guild and have gotten to know more of you through my volunteering. I have not done as much as some of you (Fair Coordinator and Guild Co-President) but many of you who haven't yet volunteered might consider running for a position. We have several openings – I don't have a complete list yet – but if you are interested in helping out in a particular area, please let me or Laura know. We will have a nominating committee, but until that happens, you are welcome to discuss it with either of us. I think that you will find it rewarding.

Mary Brown

County Fair Jan Davis, Fair Coordinator

CountyFair@SanDiegoKnitters.com

Thanks to the seventeen members who have already signed up to help in the Guild's fair booth this summer. I need a few more people. I'm awaiting confirmation of our requested dates (June 27, 28, 29) from the Home and Hobby office. I promise to contact everybody on my list as soon as I hear from them.

The theme of the 2018 fair is "How Sweet It Is." Those of you who intend to enter items in the competition will find some cute dessert items to knit or crochet! There is also a Yarn Block Contest. Entry deadline for the Needle Arts competition is May 11. Delivery dates are May 18-19. Exhibit dates are June 1 - July 4. Awards will be given July 1. Pick up your items on July 7.

Our Guild awards two prizes: one for the best workmanship and one for the best original design.

I expect to have more to report at the May meeting. I will have a sign-up sheet with me.

Philanthropy Ginny Newton, Philanthropy Chair Philanthropy@SanDiegoKnitters.com

We continue to receive hats, scarves and baby blankets from our fellow, wonderful, generous Guild members. The organizations we support are so appreciative.

The first Knit-a-Square event is scheduled for April 25, from 10-Noon at the Solana Beach Library. There you will be able to join with your fellow members to knit a 12" square which will eventually be sewn together with others into blankets to be donated to Project Linus. Worsted weight yarn and patterns will be provided, but please bring your own size 7 needles. Another project to be tackled at the same time is crocheting together hundreds of small medallions into usable blankets. Again, yarn and the previously knitted/crocheted medallions will be provided, but we ask that you bring your own crochet hooks of various sizes.

RSVP to Philanthropy@sandiegoknitters.com. If you can't make the 25th, bring in your 12" squares and we'll add them to the blankets.

Stop by the Philanthropy Table at the next meeting to see what's going on.
