San Diego, California - www.ncknit.com

Number 154 – March, 2010

The Guild Meeting Tuesday, March 2nd, 2010 12:30pm

San Dieguito United Methodist Church
Assembly Room ~ 170 Calle Magdalena, Encinitas

For the March Meeting, we will be covering two topics:

Conference Updates and Trends:

We will have some informal reports from various members who attended: TNNA, Madrona Fiber Arts and Stitches West. They will share with us yarn trends, and update us on what they saw and learned in their workshops. You may not have attended these events but hopefully you will THINK you did!

Embellishments:

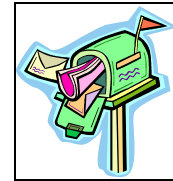

In addition, the RN (Rather Normal) Sub Group will give a short presentation on "Neck Embellishments: A Lot for a Little." This will be great to have one of our Sub Groups present at one of our Meetings.... and we will be there to cheer you all on....

"We are fortunate and very pleased that this Sub Group has come forward and agreed to contribute to a monthly guild program. They came up with the Neck Embellishment idea on their own. This will be a great incentive and encouragement for other Sub Groups to make a contribution at future meetings. Just let me know if you and your Sub Group have a short program to share with everyone!"

Colleen Davis-Program Chairperson

May Workshops.....

Get ready...our next workshops will be in May with Anna Walden of Twisted Sisters. They will be held on Wednesday, May 3 and Thursday, May 4 for 6 hours each. Topics will be announced at the March 2nd meeting. Sign-ups for these will be at the April meeting. Just as a reminder, that anytime we have workshops, sign-ups and reservations can be made at the Guild meeting or by mail. You can send your check made out to North Coast Knitters to our Treasurer, Jean Moore, 4050-50 Porte La Paz, San Diego, Ca 92122.

Regardless of whether you receive your Newsletter by snail mail or email...don't let this be your last newsletter!

◆ PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.....

FROM BARBARA LEVIN

In the early 1980s when I first volunteered for a non-profit group, I broke down and bought what was then state-of-the-art technology: an answering machine. I was frustrated by having to repeatedly make calls to other volunteers who did not have answering machines, and I did not want to pass that aggravation along to people trying to reach me.

Communication continues to become faster and more complex. I'm old enough to remember when IBM Selectrics with correcting tapes were the hot new thing, when faxing replaced overnight delivery and when Xeroxing finally tolled the death knell for carbon paper (remember trying to correct three smudged copies?).

Now not only do I have email accounts, I reach my friends through Twitter and Facebook, IM and texting. I'm not wildly enthusiastic about some of these techniques, but I use them because they are the best way to communicate with certain people I want to reach.

I bring this all up because of the misunderstanding many members have over delivery of the Guild's newsletter. If we have your email address, we will send the newsletter to you electronically unless you send an email (no phone calls, please) to Sheri Fisher (sherirob1@aol.com) saying you need a paper copy.

There are many reasons for this. Emailed newsletters:

- Allow us to print longer newsletters because we are not restricted by the 8-pages limit for cheap postage.
- Allow you to get your newsletter sooner and more securely (and in color).
- Allow you to reach photos and free patterns on-line with one click.
- Allow you the choice of reading and saving your newsletter either in your computer or by printing it out.

- Allow us to use funds for programs instead of printing and mailing costs. Last month's newsletter cost $176.
- Free up volunteers from time-consuming tasks of folding and addressing hundreds of copies.

As long as I am president (10 more months and counting) and the board agrees, the Guild will continue to mail newsletters to those who request them. But before you make that request, remember the fate of carbon paper and typewriter ribbons and consider switching to a newer technology. There may come a day in the not-too-distant future when the newsletter is only available on-line. This is neither a threat nor a promise –merely an observation on how quickly the world changes. If you have any comments, please contact me by email: Barbara.Levin@me.com.

We love our pets and we'd probably love meeting yours. But please do not bring them to Guild events.

◆ FEBRUARY MEETING MINUTES

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PAST MEETING
San Diego North Coast Knitters
General Membership Meeting
Tuesday, February 2, 2010 - 12:30 p.m.
Barbara Levin presiding
153 members and guests present

President Barbara Levin opened the meeting by welcoming a record-breaking number of members and guests. The room was packed! Sara Stolz reminded members about our April in-house program; the Knitted Skirt Fashion Show. Colleen Davis reminded members about The Tea Party Challenge scheduled for the July meeting. Susan Ludwig will be collecting your creations at the June meeting. Liz Knapp announced that philanthropy kits for helmet liners and scarves were available. Jo-Ellen Gould announced plans for the Knitting Retreat at Casa de Maria, May 24 - 27th.

Barbara introduced our guest speaker, Amy Singer, editor of Knitty.com and author of "No Sheep for You".

Amy came all the way from Toronto, Canada to offer a presentation/lecture/trunk show on alternatives to wool yarn. She has become an expert on the subject because she is allergic to wool, loves to knit, and was strongly motivated to research wool substitutes. She explained that there were five Fiber families; Bast (linen,hemp), Seed (cotton,kabok), Protein (silk), Synthetic (acrylic,nylon) and Manufactured Natural Fibers (rayon,bamboo corn, soy). She emphasized the importance of gauge, texture and weight when substituting for wool. She strongly recommended making a swatch in stockinette at least 8 inches square and to measure gauge after binding off, and to always read yarn labels very carefully. Amy was an animated and informative speaker. A question and answer session followed her presentation.

Linda Erlich conducted a diverse and inspiring Show and Share.

♦ Fashion Show in April—We Need Your Help!

Attention Fashion-istas! In April, we will have a fashion show featuring knitted and/or crocheted skirts. There are lots of new patterns for all kinds of skirts. It does not have to be new, it can have been shown before.

Sara will find a model if it no longer fits you, or you are shy to model it yourself.

We want “lots of skirts” so that it will be a fun fashion show to watch. Please participate!

Please contact Sara either by phone (858-748-4124) or email (miyakefan92064@aol.com) if you plan to participate. Thank you! Sara

✦ So What Really Goes On At Knit@Nite?

Highlights courtesy of HeatherKnit @Nite had 33 people at the JCC -- we had to hunt for chairs and move furniture to make room for people. Who knows how many people would have stormed the doors if it had been common knowledge that Amy Singer of Knitty was coming to just get her group knitting fix?

✦ 2010 PROGRAMS & CHALLENGES....

In January, Colleen Davis announced the new Challenge- "Everything Tea Party." Refer to flyer handed out at the meeting, or visit our web site...but think about knitting anything related to a "tea party".

Items will be brought to the June meeting and presented at the July meeting.

Knit by Heather Broadhurst - (LEFT PHOTO) Inspired by the Tea Party Challenge, Heather created this amazing Tea Cup and Saucer using lace weight yarn and shaping the items over real ceramics. (RIGHT PHOTO) Inspired by the Tea Party Challenge, Heather created this adorable cup cake. Notice the intricate pattern for both the "frosting" and the cupcake "cup".

Here are some links to inspire you. Please share with the Editors what you find so we can add it to the next Newsletter. Also check the web site for more links:

Temecula Retreat This Past January

In January fifteen Guild members attended our retreat at the Vina de Lestonnac Retreat Center in Temecula and in spite of the fact that our stay coincided with the rainiest week in the past year it--- was a great get away. Besides knitting and all that goes along with knitting, we were able to fit in a few field trips. Among them were visits to Old Town Temecula, The Daily Fiber Yarn Company in Murrieta and some even braved the weather and went hiking around the five mile Vina de Lestonnac "block". The retreat was such a success that we have reserved a spot for January 2011.

It is nice to get away and not have to worry about anything except knitting. If you would like to find out what you've been missing by not attending a retreat, join us this spring in Santa Barbara!

Double Occupancy	Single Occupancy

To make your deposit, or if you have any questions, please call Lois at 949 380-7938. She will be glad to assist you.

✦ Philanthropy

In 2010 the Guild will support FOUR charities. We will continue to support three existing charities:

- Hat Box Foundation - handknit and crocheted hats for patients of all ages undergoing chemotherapy. Hats may be any color or style as long as they're washable and SOFT. This charity is in Carlsbad, CA.
- HeartScarves Project - handknit and crocheted red scarves distributed in hospitals and rehabilitation centers to women undergoing or recovering from cardiac procedures. In memory of her sister, one of our members has already made more than twenty scarves for this wonderful charity!

- Operation Sam Helmet Liners - handknit of 100% superwash wool from a standard pattern, these garments fit under the helmets worn by our military troops on the front lines. Cia Bullemer's son is deployed to Afghanistan, where winter temperatures are near freezing.
- Kits-The Guild will provide yarn in the form of pre-packaged kits with yarn and pattern provided. You can sign out a kit and bring the finished item back the next month. Deadlines apply! Use your own pattern if you prefer. There are links to many free patterns on the Hat Box web page:
<http://www.hatboxfoundation.org/Sheets/Links.html>
- The fourth charity is Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society. The NMCRS office at Naval Base San Diego needs handknit, crocheted or quilted baby blankets. The blankets are given to expectant military parents who attend a "Budget for Baby" class in which they learn sound financial practices. I have been a volunteer knitter at NMCRS since 2004 and have a strong personal connection to the organization. They supply acrylic yarn (worsted or fingering weight) if you prefer not to use your own stash. I have many baby blanket patterns in my personal library, or find a new favorite in a book from our Guild library.

Thank you for the kindness you give to others in each and every stitch.

Do you love knitting and hate finishing? Do you have more than a few un-seamed sweaters lurking in your closet? Every three months, the Guild will host a free "Finishing Day" for members. Bring your almost-finished items and work on them together. The Guild will provide the room, chairs and tables and resource knitters to answer finishing questions. It might be just the jumpstart you need to get you going.

◆ How I Use Ravelry...

I use Ravelry all the time...to look for new patterns, to see what others have done with either the pattern, or yarn that I have or am thinking of getting. I have my projects page with most projects photographed. (I'm AmySheri on Ravelry). I'm also in a Mystery Sock KAL (Knit A Long) in a group called Fans of Through the Loops--the designer has a blog called Through the Loops, and as of now more than 500 Ravelers are doing the socks! It is really fun. You get a clue each Thursday (posted on the designer's website at 12:01 Eastern time, so in San Diego, we get it at 9:01pm and can get started). So far we have done the cuff, the heel, the leg and are now on the foot. The last clue will be the toe. I have inventoried my needles and printed out the card to carry, although I sometimes forget to check it, and I have a few needles that I have bought since that I need to put in. I haven't inventoried my stash, but am planning to as there are a few "oddballs" I'd like to sell or trade. All in all, I think Ravelry is a great website and a boon to knitters! I just love all the information sharing that helps us all be better knitters.

Amy Sheridan

MEMBERS PLEASE SUBMIT: We invite you to share your Ravelry experience -- what small part of the big picture are you using, what part do you want to explore and what part do you just not get/understand? Please send it to the Newsletter Editors so we can include you!
